

Getting By in America:

Immigrants, Refugees, and New American Citizens in the Capital Region

Free Panel and Discussion

Why and how do international families settle in America? Hear their stories of struggle and success.

Panelists include an immigration attorney and several members of the immigrant and refugee communities in the Capital Region of New York

Pine Hills Library, 517 Western Ave., Albany

Wednesday, June 8, 2011, 5:30-7:30 pm

Refreshments

Sponsor: NYS TESOL: New York State Teachers of English to Speakers of Other Languages (nystesol.org). Please contact Capital Region Chair, Elizabeth Allen, for more information about this event and future NYS TESOL events. Email: capital@nystesol.org