

2014 Language, Society and Culture Conference, March 7
Bronx Community College

8:30 -9:00 Registration, Continental Breakfast Room: Roscoe Brown
9:00-9:30 Opening Remarks: BCC President Carole Berotte Joseph Room: Roscoe Brown
Time	Room: North Hall 130	Room: North Hall 131
9:30-10:00 Concurrent sessions a	"What Is My Story?": Storytelling as a Challenge to Argumentative Writing in a Cultural Heritage Class Tanya Zhelezcheva	Students Use Personal Narratives as Cultural Motifs in Writing Lubie G. Alatraste
10:00-10:30 Concurrent sessions b	Using Digital Storytelling in the ESL Writing Class Shoba Bandi-Rao & Mary Sepp	Constructivist Vocabulary Building: Cultural Socialization through Narrative Storytelling Elisa Pigeron & Maureen Matarese
10:30-10:45 COFFEE BREAK
10:45-11:45 Plenary: Dr. Rebecca Mlynarczyk Storytelling and Academic Discourse: Including More Voices in the Conversation Room: Roscoe Brown
12:00-1:00 LUNCH Room: Roscoe Brown
Time	Room North Hall 130	Room North Hall 131
1:00-1:30 Concurrent sessions c	Using ESL Students' Mother Tongue to Facilitate Access to Academic Discourse in English: Sharing and Creating Success Stories in a Learning Community. Alicia Bralove & Andrea Parmegiani	Teaching Academic Discourse through Playwriting Megan Murtha & David Ellis
1:30-2:00 Concurrent session d	No Divide: A Project for Personalizing Academic Writing Julia Rodas, Svetlana Jovic, Jennifer Chancellor	ESL Storytelling to Generate Ideas Steven Bookman
2:00-2:15 COFFEE BREAK
2:15-2:45 Concurrent sessions e	The Effect of Story Telling on the CATW: A Theoretical Background Gokcora Deniz	The Movement of Comix as a Learning Device in the College Composition Class Ann Tabacnikov
2:45-3:15 Concurrent sessions f	Using Storytelling to Bridge the Cultural-Linguistic Divide in Standards-based Classrooms Lin Ching Ching	"What Need For Purists to Object When The Demotic is Built to Last': Talking to Students In Plain Language." Geoff Klock
3:15-3:30 Closing Remarks: BCC President Carole Berotte Joseph

